OBJECTIVES AND ACTIVITIES

The company's objects and principal activities are:

- a) To advance education and promote the scientific study of safety and reliability and associated disciplines, maintainability, availability, risk assessment and life cycle costing, in relation to the design of plant, systems and equipment for the benefit of the public and thereby to promote industry and commerce.
- b) To publish the results of such studies worldwide in the interests of education.

Grantmaking policy

The Society makes grants to its branches and to the subsidiary company SaRS Limited to help promote and support the aims of the Society.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Financial position

The Society acts as a forum for discussion and to promote the scientific study of safety and reliability and associated disciplines.

The Society has continued to focus on several initiatives in the past year that are aimed at boosting recruitment and retention in the short and long term, collaboration with other organisations and improving the governance and structure of the organisation. During this financial year a revised strategy has been maintained focusing on membership recruitment and membership benefits such as the re-vitalised Journal and enhancement of branches, both of which have been successful. The Society has continued to pause paid events and focused on providing high quality branch activity which has increased attendance at branch meetings. A programme of University Recruitment has been initiated and put into place during the year.

Six active branches have been maintained with a wide variety of programmes which have provided the membership with excellent knowledge exchange in keeping with the charities aims and objectives. In addition, a program of webinars has begun during the year and these have been popular.

The Society Journal and the Society newsletter continue to publish technical papers and articles. The Society continues to use social networking on Twitter and LinkedIn in to promote activities and have joined the Engineering Council Initiative 'Year of Engineering' to extend the social reach.

Office staffing remains the same. Leases and commitments have been reviewed during the year and savings made. The use of Skype for meetings has reduced travel costs and allowed more committee members to join.

Committee work has continued during the year and the Society has continued to work with organisations such as the Hazards Forum to raise the profile of safety and reliability practice and to provide knowledge opportunities for practitioners. During the year the General Data Protection Regulations came into effect and the Society has worked to comply. A Risk Register is now in place for all aspects of risk and GDPR is included in this. The Society has also developed an Equality and Inclusiveness Policy and Data Protection Policy and strengthened its audit procedures of membership committees.

The Society continues to work to a break-even budget and to fulfil the charitable aims of the organisation.

Investment policy

The Council invests the Society's free reserves in building society deposits and higher interest bank deposit accounts so as to earn where possible interest on surplus reserves whilst also maintaining a high degree of liquidity to ensure the Society remains solvent at all times.

FINANCIAL REVIEW

Reserves policy

The Trustees have established a policy whereby the accumulated funds not committed or invested in tangible fixed assets are held as a reserve against any possible shortfall in income in future periods.

As a result of the surplus income in the current year, at the balance sheet date the charity had reserves of £23,217, in the prior year liabilities exceeded an amount of £3412. The council are now reviewing the budget for 2018/19 in order to identify additional income opportunities and expense savings so that a satisfactory position in relation to reserves is achieved and maintained.

Public Benefit

The Safety and Reliability Society is a Registered Charity (number 801207). The trustees have considered the Charity Commission's guidance on public benefit, including the guidance 'public benefit: running a charity (PB2)' when setting out the aims, which are stated as:

'To advance education and promote the scientific study of safety and reliability and associated disciplines, maintainability, availability, risk assessment and life cycle costing, in relation to the design of plant, systems and equipment for the benefit of the public and thereby to promote industry and commerce, and to publish the results of such studies worldwide.' (Charitable Aims)

and in an excerpt from the Society bylaws:

- to establish professional and educational standards for safety and reliability engineers
- to provide a central organisation dedicated to the stimulation and advancement of safety and reliability technology for the benefit of industry and the public
- to provide an international forum for the exchange of information on safety and reliability engineering
- to establish standard techniques and encourage consistency in their application
- to encourage organisations and government departments to apply safety and reliability engineering techniques

(Society Bylaws)

The Society operates a Code of Conduct so that no harm can come to anyone in contact with or uses the services of the organisation. The Society works with an awareness of the Equalities Act and strives to ensure that all equality criteria are met.

Anyone can join the Safety and Reliability Society. The fee structure for joining is agreed by the trustees of the Society at the Annual General Meeting and communicated to members and the general public regularly through mailings and the website. A programme of reduced fees is in place for those in need. The membership benefits for those who are members are a related newsletter and a Journal.

Anyone who is interested in the Society can visit the Society office free of charge and the Society has branch events where members and non members can attend at no cost. The Society runs a public website with a free-to-use Body of Knowledge. The public charitable benefit of the Safety and Reliability Society is the provision of a service that promotes safety and reliability for everyone. The beneficiaries are anyone who benefits from the provision of awareness and education regarding safety and reliability, both members and non-members.

for the Year Ended 30 June 2018

STATEMENT OF TRUSTEES RESPONSIBILITIES

The trustees (who are also the directors of The Safety and Reliability Society (Limited by Guarantee) for the purposes of company law) are responsible for preparing the Report of the Trustees and the financial statements in accordance with applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

Company law requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of affairs of the charitable company and of the incoming resources and application of resources, including the income and expenditure, of the charitable company for that period. In preparing those financial statements, the trustees are required to

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently;
- observe the methods and principles in the Charity SORP;
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent;
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charitable company will continue in business.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the charitable company and to enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Companies Act 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charitable company and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

In so far as the trustees are aware:

- there is no relevant audit information of which the charitable company's auditors are unaware; and
- the trustees have taken all steps that they ought to have taken to make themselves aware of any relevant audit information and to establish that the auditors are aware of that information.

AUDITORS

The auditors, Voisey & Co, will be proposed for re-appointment at the forthcoming Annual General Meeting.

This report has been prepared in accordance with the special provisions of Part 15 of the Companies Act 2006 relating to small companies.

Report of the Independent Auditors to the Trustees of
The Safety and Reliability Society
(Limited by Guarantee)

Opinion

We have audited the financial statements of The Safety and Reliability Society (Limited by Guarantee) (the 'charitable company') for the year ended 30 June 2018 which comprise the Statement of Financial Activities, the Balance Sheet and notes to the financial statements, including a summary of significant accounting policies. The financial reporting framework that has been applied in their preparation is applicable law and United Kingdom Accounting Standards (United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice).

In our opinion the financial statements:

- give a true and fair view of the state of the charitable company's affairs as at 30 June 2018 and of its incoming resources and application of resources, including its income and expenditure, for the year then ended;
- have been properly prepared in accordance with United Kingdom Generally Accepted Accounting Practice; and
- have been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Companies Act 2006.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with International Standards on Auditing (UK) (ISAs (UK)) and applicable law. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditors responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements section of our report. We are independent of the charitable company in accordance with the ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements in the UK, including the FRC's Ethical Standard, and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Conclusions relating to going concern

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters in relation to which the ISAs (UK) require us to report to you where:

- the trustees' use of the going concern basis of accounting in the preparation of the financial statements is not appropriate; or
- the trustees have not disclosed in the financial statements any identified material uncertainties that may cast significant doubt about the charitable company's ability to continue to adopt the going concern basis of accounting for a period of at least twelve months from the date when the financial statements are authorised for issue.

Other information

The trustees are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information included in the annual report, other than the financial statements and our Report of the Independent Auditors thereon.

Our opinion on the financial statements does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial statements or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated. If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Matters on which we are required to report by exception

We have nothing to report in respect of the following matters where the Charities Act 2011 requires us to report to you if, in our opinion:

- the information given in the Report of the Trustees is inconsistent in any material respect with the financial statements ; or
- the charitable company has not kept adequate accounting records; or
- the financial statements are not in agreement with the accounting records and returns; or
- we have not received all the information and explanations we require for our audit.

Responsibilities of trustees

As explained more fully in the Statement of Trustees Responsibilities, the trustees (who are also the directors of the charitable company for the purposes of company law) are responsible for the preparation of the financial statements and for being satisfied that they give a true and fair view, and for such internal control as the trustees determine is necessary to enable the preparation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Report of the Independent Auditors to the Trustees of
The Safety and Reliability Society
(Limited by Guarantee)

Responsibilities of trustees

In preparing the financial statements, the trustees are responsible for assessing the charitable company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the trustees either intend to liquidate the charitable company or to cease operations, or have no realistic alternative but to do so.

Our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue a Report of the Independent Auditors that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with ISAs (UK) will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these financial statements.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial statements is located on the Financial Reporting Council's website at www.frc.org.uk/auditorsresponsibilities. This description forms part of our Report of the Independent Auditors.

Use of our report

This report is made solely to the charitable company's trustees, as a body, in accordance with Section 144 of the Charities Act 2011 and regulations made under Section 154 of that Act. Our audit work has been undertaken so that we might state to the charitable company's trustees those matters we are required to state to them in an auditors' report and for no other purpose. To the fullest extent permitted by law, we do not accept or assume responsibility to anyone other than the charitable company and the charitable company's trustees as a body, for our audit work, for this report, or for the opinions we have formed.
